Exceeding expectations, this polished two bedroom contemporary residence makes a strong first impression with a smart facade benefitting from street frontage, and demonstrates excellence throughout. Lustrous porcelain tiles immediately add distinction to living and meals spaces, and a sliding glass door leads to a handsome landscaped courtyard. A full complement of stainless steel appliances fills the kitchen, encompassing a gas cooktop with wok burner, electric oven, dishwasher and rangehood. Dark stone countertops combine with a wealth of cupboards, indicative of the very impressive storage throughout the whole home. Upstairs, double bedrooms with built-in robes share a study nook, private balcony and gleaming central bathroom, home to a shower, toilet, heat lamp and stone topped vanity with raised basin. Additional strengths of the abode include a second toilet, laundry, ducted heating/evaporative cooling, gas boosted solar hot water
