Set within the highly prized heritage listed Port Authority Building, a superb example of 20th century revival architecture, this 2-bedroom apartment enjoys a modern finish throughout and the convenience of being located within a peaceful pocket of the inner CBD.

Original windows in the living area add a sense of space and light, with a unique perspective of the grand heritage facade and the Yarra river via clear reflections in the modern building directly opposite. The adjoining kitchen has been tastefully fitted out with hardwood timber floors, stylish granite benchtops and stainless steel Bosch
