The home highlights an open living/meals/kitchen starring stone surfaces and a full complement of stainless-steel appliances encompassing a gas cooktop, fan forced oven, range hood and dishwasher. Two bedrooms with built-in robes, a concealed European laundry, reverse cycle heating and cooling, video intercom, storage cage and secure parking confirm all-round appeal. A leisurely walk to trains, trams, Errol Street cafes/bars and local recreational facilities, this chic abode is also ideally close to Melbourne's leading medical locale, University precinct, within University High Zone and the city's heart. This is the very best of inner-city living with nothing to do but move in and start exploring the bustling café scene and vibrant night life.
