In a quiet tree lined street and renovated to the highest of standards, this one bedroom one bathroom modern first floor apartment just needs your personal touches to call it home. Freshly painted throughout, the apartment is immaculately presented and is positioned to let in maximum amounts of light. The timeless white kitchen with feature black accents showcases all new appliances together with stone benchtops and a waterfall edge. There's an adjacent dining space and an open lounge area, with a car parking space at the rear of the building. Walking distance to Buckley Street shops and Essendon station, nearby bus stop and a short drive to major shopping
